

Teacher Card

A: Beef

Q: What word is used to describe meat from cattle?

Q: What state has the most cattle East of the Mississippi River?

A: Kentucky

A: Cows

Q: What do we call female cattle that have had a baby?

Q: What do we call a cattle baby?

A: Calf

A: Spring and Fall

Q: What seasons do cows give birth to calves in Kentucky?

Q: What do we call male cattle that can father calves?

A: Bulls

A: Steers

Q: What do you call male cattle that are only raised for beef?

Q: What do you call female cattle that have never had a calf?

A: Heifer

A: Veterinarian

Q: What do you call the person who helps the farmer keep their cattle healthy?

Q: What is the breed name of most black beef cattle raised in Kentucky?

A: Black Angus

Q: What is the breed name of the cattle with red coats and white faces?

A: Hereford

Q: What is the name of another popular beef cattle breed in Kentucky?

A: Charolais

Q: What do you call the process of letting calves feed themselves instead of drinking milk?

A: Weaning

Q: How old are calves when they are weaned?

A: 6 to 8 months old

Q: What do cattle eat when they are grazing on pasture?

A: Grass

Q: What do you call grass that has been cut and dried? Cattle can eat this in the winter or when there isn't enough grass.

A: Hay

Q: What do you call the place where cattle are sold?

A: Stockyard

Q: What is the term used a fenced yard where young cattle are fed forages and grains?

A: Feedlot

Q: How much do cattle weigh when they are sold for processing?

A: About 1200 pounds

Q: How do farmers identify their cattle?

A: Eartags

Q: What essential nutrient does beef provide to help us grow and build muscle?

A: Protein

Q: What popular food item can we make from ground beef?

A: Hamburgers

Q: Name a cut of beef that has been labeled as heart healthy by the American Heart Association.

A: Top Sirloin Filet

Q: Beef labeled “chuck” comes from what area of a cow’s body?

A: Shoulder

Q: What is the term used for extra products that can be made from leftovers?

A: By-products

Q: What is the name of the product made from beef cattle hide?

A: Leather

Q: What sweet food items are made with beef byproducts?

A: Marshmallows & Gummies

Q: What beef byproduct is used to make perfume, lubricants, and fuel?

A: Beef fat

Q: What is the most popular type of livestock that are raised on Kentucky farms?

A: Beef cattle

Q: Who is the most awesome teacher?